The Roxburgh Agency (ROX) is proud to announce that Jann Rowe has been named Vice President of Account Services. Rowe, who joined ROX in 2010, has over two decades of experience in the home building and development industries. Her proven acumen for innovative thinking, strategic planning and creative solutions has proven to be invaluable to the ROX team. In addition to managing several of the agency's major accounts, Rowe will also direct the account services department providing leadership and mentoring to the team as a whole.

"The knowledge and experience Jann has brought to ROX has contributed mightily to the organization," noted Claudia Roxburgh, founder and president of the 31-year old agency. "And her sense of humor and creative thinking is a great addition to the company."

As the primary presenter of ROX's FACE Program, Rowe spends a significant portion of her time demonstrating the many benefits of the program to clients and potential clients. "For those who are looking to demystify the art of marketing and advertising, FACE provides a structured format that will even impress the financial types," stated Rowe.
